GEORGE ENESCU INTERNATIONAL COMPETITION
BUCHAREST - ROMANIA
-2022-

I. APPLICATION RULES*

The George Enescu International Competition for Composition, Cello, Violin and Piano is open to participants of all nationalities, born after August 1st, 1989.

No exception to this age limit is accepted.

Applications for all Competition sections will be submitted online on www.festivalenescu.ro/competition/apply

- ID;
- short biography (maximum 300 words) to specify place and date of birth, studies, masterclasses, concerts, awards
- proof of payment of the participation fee
- two recent high quality photos
- competition repertoire (to be chosen from the repertoire specified at Ch. II Repertoire).

Candidates will upload a video file on a platform such as Google Drive, WeTransfer, OneDrive or any other that allows the download of the file.

The video file must meet the following specifications:

- high audio-video quality;
- any post-production editing is prohibited;
- format: one video file in mpeg-4, wmv, avi;
- each chosen work of the program for the online round can be recorded separately. You are allowed to merge separate recordings together but each piece must be recorded in one take.
- No cuts are allowed between the movements of a work (for example between the movements of a Sonata);
- video recording must have a single camera angle (for pianists, the angle must allow the observation of the keyboard) and all works must be recorded in the same location;
- the video recording must be made especially for the George Enescu International Competition 2022, at most 6 months before the registration deadline;
- repeats should be played if the maximum time given allows; the program should be presented similar to a recital;
- where applicable, all works must include piano accompaniment. Orchestra accompaniment will not be accepted. Tutti parts can be omitted;
- at the beginning of the video recorded recital, contestants must present themselves by speaking in English, mentioning their full name, their nationality and that they are participating in the George Enescu International Competition 2022, specifying the section (cello, violin or piano) and the chosen program.

Exemplu: I am John Smith, from the United Kingdom. This is my recital for the online round of the Enescu Competition 2022, Violin section. I will perform Bach - Chaconne from Partita in D minor for Solo Violin, Mozart Violin Concerto No. 4 in D major - first movement, Beethoven Violin Sonata no. 9, Enescu Menetrier and Paganini Caprice no. 17.

*The Organizer reserves the right to amend any part of the Event format, agenda or programme if necessary at any time.

Between May 1st - 20th, 2022, all video recordings will be available for free on www.festivalenescu.ro/en. By participating in the competition, candidates agree to the publication of their recordings.

By completing and submitting the registration form each candidate agrees with the terms and conditions of the competition rules. The original Romanian version of the competition rules governs over all interpretations.

The registration deadline is April 15th, 2022.
